A REPORT ON FEEDBACK ANALYSIS FROM VARIOUS STAKEHOLDERS:
2019-20

Shri DurgaPrasad (Autonomous) College of Arts & Applied Sciences has a rich history of more than 40 years. Constituted under the Aegis of Shreeeram vidyapeeth , the educational wing of M/s. Ferro Alloys Corpn. Ltd. (FACOR) the largest producer of Ferro alloys in the country. The Vidyapeeth is brain child of visionary Shri Durgaprasad sarafji who wanted the people of the backward region to prosper academically as well as economically. The buildings and infrastructure of the college was the talking point and the centre of attraction of the people in North coastal Andhra. The management took care in recruiting highly talented and qualified faculty. Introduction of new courses in applied science in the early 70s was the strength of the college. Students belonging to far and wide areas including neighbouring states like Chattisggad and Odissa pursuing their academic career. Getting admission into the college was “A dream come true for many”.Right from inspection the college has been shaping the future of destiny of downtrodden weaker the section of the society who got access to low- cost quality education.

The institution is recognised by UGC under 2(f) and 12(B) of the UGC act in June 1979. And it attained autonomous status in on 11th May 1987(1977-78 AY).The college is accredited with NAAC B+ grade in March 2007.The college offers more than five undergraduate courses B.A., ,B.Com.,(both media) and B.Sc.,in MPC, AMP, and MGC. The college is endowed with state of the Art laboratories, loaded library, well furnished air conditioned conference hall, separate laboratories for English and commerce, an established NCC, NSS and Youth Red Cross(IRCS) units and not the least and sprawling play field where students won their physical skills.

Alumni:

The college proudly boasts of distinguished alumni who have spread all over the country and abroad. Many of them occupied premier positions in industry, commerce, trade, education banking sector etc.

In fact a number of NCC cadets are serving armed services and police forces. Many of the past students of our college do visit their “alma matter” and meet the current students to motivate them. Alumni meets are organised once in a year to received feed- back. In the meetings the alumni express their gratitude towards the institution which shaped their destiny

Parents:

The college has a full pledged and functioned parent-teachers association which meets once in a year. The parents do get an opportunity to interact with the faculty and ventilate their grievance with them if any. In fact the feed -back and suggestion from their parents do help in shaping our future policies and strategies. Many of the parents appreciate the effort of the college administration in moulding the career of the students.

Students:

The students of “the heart and soul” of our college and “ears and eyes”. The success story of any educational institution is intrinsically linked with the success of students. In fact it will not the an exaggeration to state that the economy and economic standards of this area haven been boosted by the talent that emerge3d from our institution. Many of our students in their feed back during the college day celebrations pour out their gratitude and sense of belonging to this institution.

So we feel immense pride and satisfaction with a kind of feed- back we get from the alumni, parents and students.
